How do you react in the following case study to bring our values to life?

CASE STUDY SERVICE LINE AUDIT: PROFESSIONAL (F/M/D)

Together with your client, you have introduced a new, powerful control and monitoring concept in their company. Your client informs you that the system works very well in the parent company in Germany and that they would also like to implement it across the international subsidiaries in Eastern Europe, the USA and Asia. What do you advise them to do?
