How do you react in the following case study to bring our values to life?

CASE STUDY SERVICE LINE TAX CONSULTING: PROFESSIONAL (F/M/D)

You receive an enquiry from one of your longstanding clients. They would like to simplify the existing corporate structure and establish a transparent one in the long term. The affected companies are located in Eastern Europe and should be part of the German parent company in the future. Shareholders are currently both German and foreign companies. What advice would you give the client for implementing the plan? How do you proceed?
